Ramsey County Library News & Events

Modified Services at the Library

Ramsey County Library is committed to providing efficient, effective and equitable operational approaches during the COVID-19 pandemic. We have a variety of modified services available for residents. To learn more about modified services, please visit rclreads.org/news/rcl-closed-faq.

Modified services include but not limited to:

- Holds and printed documents pickup.
- Home delivery.
- Ramsey County Service Centers at the libraries in Maplewood, Roseville and Shoreview. Centers provide residents with connections to county services.
- Career labs at the libraries in Maplewood and Roseville.
- Provisional Library Accounts.

Digital resources and online services are also available for patrons. Online help is available for all ages including homework help via HelpNow; job and career help via JobNow; and online learning tools such as lynda.com and Transparent Languages. Virtual programs, created by your favorite librarians, are available to enjoy at home. Learn more at rclreads.org.

RBdigital will discontinue e-audiobook service

Changes are coming to your RBdigital access. On November 30, RBdigital will discontinue e-audiobook service. Current holds will disappear. The metro public libraries and the Metropolitan Library Services Agency (MELSA) are reviewing vendors to find the best digital services.

cloudLibrary access for e-audio will continue to be available. New holds can be made using cloudLibrary. To find your holds list, go to rclreads.org and log in to your account.

For help with your e-audiobooks on cloudLibrary, call the library during open hours and speak with a reference librarian. For more information on downloadables, visit rclreads.org/e-books-e-audiozbooks-e-magazines.

Ramsey County Library on the Open Data Portal

DYK? Ramsey County Library circulated 3,442,392 materials and was a Star Library for a seventh consecutive year - one of three in Minnesota for 2019! Now you can learn more about all of the Library's accomplishments, circulation numbers and more on Ramsey County's Open Data Portal. In Ramsey County Library by the Numbers, you can see all of the library's services and programs or get a detailed breakdown of circulation numbers in the Library Usage story.

Ramsey County launched the Open Data Portal as way for residents to read, research and download data on county programs and services. Learn more at opendata.ramseycounty.us.

Free Groceries via Foodmobile

Mondays, 10 a.m. - 12 p.m.
November 9; December 14
RCL - Roseville Parking Lot

The Keystone Community Services Foodmobile will be visiting the library in Roseville once per month for the remainder of 2020. Foodmobile services are available to anyone in the seven-county metro community needing food support. During this time, participants will receive free shelf stable items, produce, milk, meat and other staples via the Foodmobile in a pre-packed model. New participants to Keystone should be prepared to fill out a short intake form on your first visit. Participants are encouraged to bring your own shopping bags. If you have any questions about the Foodmobile, please contact Keystone Community Services at 651-645-0349 or keystoneservices.org.

History in the Making: How Will We Remember the Year 2020?

Tuesdays, 1 - 2:30 p.m.

Some years act as the hinges of history; they are the pivots, years so momentous that they become the defining point when everything changed, as the Past became the Future. Marked as it is by pandemic, economic crisis and massive social protest, will 2020 be one of those years? Join four distinguished area speakers as they consider the historic legacy of the year that is soon coming to a close.

November 3: Duchess Harris on the Legacy of George Floyd

Minneapolis caught the attention of the world during the first weeks of June this year, but will those tragic events bring about lasting change? Duchess Harris is chair of the American Studies Department at Macalester College.

November 10: Richard Painter on the Political Consequences of a Pandemic

How will COVID-19 shape our political future as a nation? Richard Painter is the S. Walter Richey Professor of Corporate Law at the University of Minnesota. He previously served as the US President's chief ethics lawyer during the George W. Bush administration.

November 17: Ed Lotterman on the Economic Roller-coaster of 2020

Join economics writer Ed Lotterman for a first look at the history of the eventful year 2020. What will the economic legacy of this year be?

Ed Lotterman writes the "Real World Economics" column for the Pioneer Press. He has taught economics at the college level and enjoys explaining "the dismal science" to non-economists.

November 24: Peter Bell on the Conservative View of a Year of Crisis

Conservative thinker Peter Bell examines the background, assumptions and implications of some of the most controversial ideas contributing to the polarization of our current political conversation. Wherever you fall on the political spectrum, you'll be interested in Bell's thoughtful analysis.

Peter Bell is the former Chair of the Metropolitan Council and a frequent media contributor to the Star Tribune as well as public television and radio.

This series is co-sponsored by the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute of the University of MN with the financial support of the Friends of the Ramsey County Libraries.

Community & Well-being Events

Covid-19: Urgent Lessons for Public Health Reform

Tuesday, November 17, 6:30 - 8 p.m.

Join us for a panel discussion on health policy lessons COVID-19 provides. Our current system is ill-prepared. The bidding war between hospitals and states to overcome the shortage of PPE shows the unacceptable lack of preparedness. People losing employer coverage during the pandemic, on top of those already without coverage, point to huge gaps. Infectious disease responses are counting on everyone in order to stop the spread of the virus. The pandemic points to the need for a system that addresses health disparities and covers everyone, without exception — a system that plans ahead to address public health needs efficiently. Co-hosted with League of Women Voters- Roseville Area.

Let's Talk About Race (Let's Get Uncomfortable) with the Theater of Public Policy

Tuesday & Thursday, 7 - 8:30 p.m.
November 17, 19

Racism is everybody's problem and it's well past time to start talking about it. In this conversation series, Let's Get Uncomfortable (LGU), we're asking you to do just that. LGU is a facilitated space to get people (particularly white people) to talk about racism, its consequences and how we all share the responsibility to do the work for change. Need a place to start? Here you go, get uncomfortable with us. Co-hosted by The Theater of Public Policy, the City of Shoreview and Ramsey County Library. This event is funded with money from the Minnesota Arts and Cultural Heritage Fund and additional funding provided by the City of Shoreview.

Redlining and Racial Covenants

Tuesday, December 8, 7 - 8:30 p.m.

Jobs & Small Business Events

Small Business Workshops

Online Market Research

Tuesday, November 10, 12 - 1:30 p.m.

Ever wonder “how do I research an industry or understand the demographics of my business, or, how do I use a database to identify my competition and prospects?” In these times, leveraging online resources from the public library is one of your best options. Come join us to get a clear view of the tools available in the Ramsey and Hennepin County libraries to gain control of your research efforts and increase your success!

This workshop will provide you with an overview of some of the most important research tools available: Mergent Intellect, Business Source Premier and Data Axle Reference Solutions. You'll walk away understanding what each is, where they fit in your business building effort and your options to use these powerful resources.

Taxes for Small Business

Wednesday, November 11, 11 a.m. - 1 p.m.

No one wants a “friendly” letter from the IRS. Taxes are an important part of starting a business and it's not as difficult as you think! But where do you start? How should I set up my business: as a sole proprietor, LLC, corporation, or partnership? What can I deduct and how do I track my expenses? How do I report my business income and expenses? This webinar will answer all of these questions and more.

Business Essentials

Tuesday, November 17, 11 a.m. - 1 p.m.

This webinar will explore the basic components of building your business. We'll focus on understanding who is your customer, what product or service do you want to take to market, who's your competition and how are you unique. We'll then look at what action plan needs to be put in place to achieve your goals, understanding basic finances and funding and what resources are available to help you in your journey.

Website Review

Thursday, November 19, 11 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.

First we'll cover the anatomy of a homepage (the first page your visitors hit when they land on your website). Then we'll talk about the copy on a homepage and how your visitors are reading your site. Finally, we'll review how to capture leads on your website.

Know Your Numbers

Tuesday, December 8, 10 - 11:30 a.m.

Equip yourself with a solid base for staying compliant and knowing the financial status of your business. Learn how to manage your income and expenses. Knowing and understanding your numbers is a key component of your business success. This is a great finance overview with some clear guidance from one of our community's most experienced business accounting executives.

Curbside Bag Sale Success!

Our September $5 Curbside Bag Sale has come to a successful end. Over 820 bags of books were picked up by mask-hidden-smiling, book-loving customers. That's over 8,000 books. Now we're smiling because we raised $3,350 to support Ramsey County Library.

This event was made possible by amazing and hard working volunteers. Led by Peggy Biernat, Susan Miller and Miriam Peterson from the Shoreview Used Bookstore and supported by many other volunteers from other Friends Bookstore locations, we thank them for all they do.

$5 Bags of Books, as well as individual books and media, will be available for purchase through our new Virtual Used Bookstore at rclfriends.org.

Northeast Bank Champions Read. Make. Do. Kits

Strength of a Leader. Hand of a Friend.

The Friends extend a big THANK YOU to Northeast Bank, our generous 2020 Signature Sponsor. Their support is helping to fund many Ramsey County Library programs throughout the year, such as the Read. Make. Do. kits for children offered over the summer and again in the fall.

Read. Make. Do. Kits are "programs in a bag" designed to help kids learn, discover and explore until we can safely meet again at the library. Each Read. Make. Do. kit offers activities, supplies and resource lists related to a topic for a specific age range to be picked up and used at home.

Parents can register their children for corresponding virtual online educational sessions led by librarians. Visit rclreads.org/read-make-do-kits to learn more.
